Colorado Notes

TIGHTENING UP- After beginning the season with a record of 0-4-0-1, the Eagles have now won three of their last four contests, including victories in each of their last two, after sweeping a two-game set against the Texas Stars on Tuesday and Wednesday. Colorado has particularly tightened things on the defensive side, as the Eagles have allowed only two goals-against in their last two games, allowing just 46 total shots in that span. On the flip side, Colorado's last two games saw the Eagles outscore the Stars 6-2, as the power play converted three times in those two wins.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN- Although the Eagles are heading into just their tenth game of the season, this is already Colorado's third time hopping on a plane to hit the road. Tonight's game against the Gulls will be the Eagles sixth road game of the season in an early portion of the schedule that is very road heavy. After tonight, Colorado will travel to take on the Ontario Reign tomorrow before closing out this four-game road swing with a pair of games against the Stars in Texas next weekend. In total, nine of the Eagles first 13 games will be played away from the Budweiser Events Center.

TRENDING UP- Despite some early struggles to start the season, Colorado's penalty kill has been a big asset over the past three games. During that three-game stretch the Eagles PK has gone 12-for-13, including perfect marks against Stockton last Saturday (3-for-3) and in last Wednesday's 4-1 win over Texas (5-for-5). Wednesday's victory also saw Colorado register its 2nd shorthanded goal of the season when forward Alex Newhook buried the game-winner on a shorthanded breakaway in the second period.

ALL MINE- Colorado recalled three players from the ECHL's Utah Grizzlies last Sunday including goaltender Trent Miner, who made his Eagles debut in Colorado's 4-1 win over Texas on Wednesday. The 20-year-old rookie finished the game with 15 saves on 16 shots and improved his career AHL record to 3-3-1, with one shutout and complimented by a 2.58 goals-against average and a .906 save-percentage. Miner had been dominant in the ECHL in the early part of the season, posting a 4-1-0 record, including a pair of shutouts.

PACING THE WAY- Eagles forward Dylan Sikura will hit the ice tonight riding a point streak that is tied for the longest in the AHL this season at seven games. In addition, he has also scored a goal in each of his last two contests. Sikura has put up four goals and seven assists during that stretch. The 26-year-old has only played in seven of Colorado's nine contests this season, meaning that he has posted at least one point in every game he has played with the Eagles this season, including a pair of multi-point performances.
